EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 27, 1895.

TENTH YEAR

LAID UPON THE TABLE

Were Many Communications by Council.

SIDEWALKS WERE DISCUSSED

The Question Will be Settled in a Suit, But it Required a Lot of Talking Before That Decision Was Reached—The Ordinance Was Not Repealed—Board of Health Investigation Met Death Because a Tie Vote Would Not Permit Another Hearing.

There was stir at city hall last night, and council had no opportunity to begin its work until 8:30 o'clock, when all members in the chamber decided they would go home if something was not done in a hurry. The something was done, and the session began.

After the minutes of the meeting where the board of health litigation met its death had been read, and a smile had passed around council, ordinances providing for grade lines on Indiana avenue, Pleasant street and Chestnut street were disposed of. The ordinance providing for the appropriation of property for the extension of Fourth street was read, and the communication of the Specialty company relating to the construction of the culvert was also given. President Berg corrected this so that the work will be under the supervision of the city engineer, and the motion carried. A petition from the property owners of Lincoln avenue asking that the street be paved from the Horn switch to Grant street was received, and another from Norton street residents wanting an electric light was placed on file. They fear that the street is dangerous without light, and there was a wise look on every member's face when Burton said they had no money for new lights. A long communication from some individual signing himself "citizen" objected to the loafers who obstruct sidewalks and make walking unpleasant for ladies. Swindells and Burton wanted the thing received, but Marshall amended to throw it in the waste basket. Williams was of the same opinion, but the president thought it would be best to order it under the table or on the table. Owen believed there was too much truth in the communication to dispose of it in that manner, as the reform was badly needed, and council should give it attention. Doctor Marshall expressed himself as not being opposed to the contents of the communication, but to the manner in which it was signed. It was anonymous, and council should not notice men who did not sign their names. When the vote came Kent, Marshall and Williams were the only members who favored the wastebasket plan, and the amendment was lost. Swindells was granted an extension of time on the solicitor's bill investigation, and the following communication from George Wucherer was read:

The communication was addressed to Mr. James Hanley.
DEAR SIR: Some time back, at least it appears to the public traveling on the Calcutta road to have been a long time ago, a petition was sent to council for a light just above the intersection of Walnut street. After a while the matter was referred to the light committee. I wonder if council don't think it about time now to refer it to the men who put up the lamps? I saw a lamp go up the road this morning and thought we had at last been remembered, but on looking was doomed to disappointment. The city has money now and can put the lamp in place as well as not. Please call the attention of council to the matter again.
Respectfully Yours,
GEORGE WUCHERER.

As council expressed no desire to take action on the matter, a communication from the Bradshaw heirs was read. They objected to the improvement of Indiana avenue and Minerva street because the people who had purchased property from them were unable to bear the expense. As usual, it was tied. An offer from the publishers of the daily papers to print the annual report of the clerk for half the regular rate invoked some discussion. Owen thought the plan was much better than having it printed in book form, as many persons had no opportunity to see it when it was distributed in that way while none could complain if it appeared in the daily press. It was finally received and laid on the table. Williams as chairman of the Indiana avenue viewing committee reported that they had decided to change the grade, and the engineer would state the alterations at the next meeting. A resolution to grade and pave Elm street from Pennsylvania avenue to Thompson avenue was passed when Swindells explained that the rain had been washing the lots away, and the improvement was badly needed. Solicitor Clark informed council through a communication that he had been called to Lisbon to look after the city's business, and he would like to have authority to prepare the papers required in the Billingsley cases. He got it. Burton wanted an ordinance prepared providing for the paving of Lincoln avenue, but Marshall reminded him that they already had an ordinance of this kind, and it was useless to spend more money for that purpose.

Then came the amusement of the evening in the form of a resolution providing for the repeal of sections 215 and 216 of the revised ordinances. As these sections form the sidewalk ordinance there was a general pricking up of ears in the lobby. The resolution was signed by Councilman Owen, who moved that the rules be suspended and the order passed. Horwell thought this was too hasty, and could not see why an ordinance should be repealed before another had been drafted to take its place. The repeal would give business men the whole sidewalk, and people would have to move into the streets. Berg and Swindells made some explanation, but the president also believed that a new law would be necessary before they killed the present ordinance. Then Swindells arose, and having taken part in a discussion of the matter earlier in the evening, was prepared to talk. He knew of things that had arisen making the repeal a necessity, he said. Owen declared that he wanted the ordinance repealed in order that the manufacturers have privileges which justly belonged to them. There was at present a case pending where a photographer had been ordered to move his box. To show what he believed to be the injustice of this, he pointed to the street car, light, telephone and telegraph companies as having their poles, obstructions, inside the curb line. During the time when a coal famine was threatened some manufacturers had been compelled to fill the sidewalks with coal, and they were just as liable for the penalty as the photographers. Kent believed that Owen was too stiff in his construction of what Knowles, Taylor & Knowles had done, as that concern never used the walk. Even if it did he could not place it in the same line with the merchants. He could see to his own satisfaction that striking out the sections meant giving the streets to the merchants. Other business men and photographers had been notified, yet they had complied with the law like men. Here Owen arose to remark that his expression regarding Knowles, Taylor & Knowles had been misconstrued. He had no desire to speak disrespectfully of the company, as he knew that it was at times necessary to use the pavements. What he could not understand was the reason this sidewalk ordinance had been taken up when there was no complaint. If the ordinance was enforced and the photographer was compelled to move the box, the manufacturers would also have to comply with the law, and this would be an injustice. Then Swindells took the floor. He said the box had been there for years, and during that time the city had been provided with several efficient marshals, and they had not ordered it moved. There were other blockades, one at Broadway and Forest street, that was not a necessity. Why had it not been moved? Unfortunately the marshal was absent and another man, overzealous, was filling his place, and this same man had caused another warrant to be issued yesterday and it now hung over the photographer's head. It was the understanding that the deputy would let matters rest for the present. The speaker and Mr. Owen had measured the box, and found that only 19 inches of it extended over the sidewalk. No marshal, in his recollection, had ever seen fit to cause trouble from this cause. The only officer who suffered from a fit of overzealousness. "He admitted to me that he notified some of the manufacturers and they laughed at him," Officer Supplee happened to be in the room, and in an instant was on his feet.

"That is an untruth," he said loud enough to be heard all over the room. Swindells seemed startled at this interruption, and was stammering that it was something like that when Berg rapped hard for order, and Marshall announced that the member from the First ward had wandered far from his point. Swindells thereupon

SCHOOL BOARD DID NOT LIKE IT

They Insisted on Teaching What Some Directors of the Washington District Did Not Believe, and the Difference Was Quickly Settled by a Key—The Floating Bethel Has Gone.

The Floating Bethel has moved to Wellsville, but before leaving this part of the world the evangelists succeeded in raising a row in West Virginia.

Several weeks ago they began to hold meetings in the Washington school house, three miles from the river, and the people came from miles around. They were not only attracted by the presence of a night meeting in their vicinity, but began to hear stories of a peculiar doctrine being practiced at the school house. For a time there were no conversions, but the evangelists were not discouraged. Night after night did Reverend Clayton and his little band pour out in burning words which the people heard, and failed to appreciate. Then some went to the bench, others followed, and the whole country side was soon ringing with the words of those who said they had been saved. There were doubts in the minds of some people about the saving, and there were others who could not appreciate the doctrine of holiness, but the meetings continued, and people flocked to the school house until it was filled night after night. While this was in progress some sinners were being saved, but others could not appreciate the force of the argument. At length it began to be whispered about that the evangelists were preaching anything but an acceptable religion. The rumor gathered ground as it flew, and every argument on the subject seemed to end with worse effect. The people believe in religion in that vicinity, and think they are trying to carry out the law, but they could see no reason why a man was not susceptible to sin, nor could they realize that the washing of feet had anything to do with salvation. They were also opposed to bitter attacks against all denominations except the one to which the evangelists belonged, and failed to find a road to heaven through the vilification of their neighbors. These were fixed institutions in the meetings that failed to meet the approbation of the people, and it was at length decided to make a move that would put an end to the objectionable ideas in that vicinity. Some people became so enthusiastic last week that members of the school board were urged to act quickly, and they acted. When the evangelists arrived on Sunday afternoon they found a few men with stern faces at the school house, but were greatly surprised to learn that the building had been built for educational purposes, but they did not look upon the teachings of the evangelists so far as they related to the washing of feet and the condemning of church people as elevating the moral standing of the community. The evangelists did not like the turn affairs had taken, and said so, but the door was locked, and they were unable to enter. The story soon became noised through the district, and while some people expressed regret there were many others to commend the action taken.

WILL VIEW IT TOMORROW.
Mayor Gilbert and Fire Chief Adam will tomorrow look over a building which has come under the heading of unsafe. The structure in question is the old "White church," directly in the rear of the Methodist Protestant church, Fifth street, and is occupied by a number of colored people. A blaze in the building several weeks ago revealed the fact that it was a fire trap of the worst kind, and that the big brick building was constantly in danger. Beside this the building appears unbalanced and liable to fall on its occupants at any moment. The mayor and chief will probably condemn this building as they did the two others mentioned in the News Review yesterday, and order the tenants to vacate.

HAD MONEY TO BURN.
The few people who were standing in a drugstore on Sixth street the other night were somewhat surprised to see a young urchin who ordinarily could not sport a nickel come in, make a purchase and throw down a dollar. The question was asked where he got the money, and the boy replied "Oh, I sold my cork leg." This sent his hearers into convulsions of laughter, but they found that the boy's statements were true, and the erstwhile penniless family had, as he said, "Money to burn." It is also true that some of the good citizens of East Liverpool pitied the man when he lost his limb, and the money they subscribed purchased that very cork leg.

THIS ONE DID NOT PAY.
Special to News Review.
CHATAHOOGA, March 27.—Robbers boarded the Cincinnati Southern express near Somerset, Ky., this morning, and attempted to break into the express car. The trainmen charged the gang and killed one man and captured two. The remainder escaped.

PAID THE FINE.
George Simms, the youth who figured prominently in the stealing of a revolver Monday was not taken to the Lisbon jail to serve the sentence imposed by Squire Rose. The fine was $10 and costs or 20 days behind the bars. The money was paid.

JENNY WANTS MONEY.
She Says Her Employer Injured Her Reputation.
Special to News Review.
LISBON, March 27.—Miss Jennie Myers, of Summittville brought suit today against Daniel Morgan, of the same place, asking damages for an injured reputation.

THE PETITION STATES THAT DURING last summer she was employed by Morgan as housekeeper, and when she was in his house he made statements concerning her in the presence of other people that were calculated to ruin the character of any woman, and charged her with being criminally intimate with several parties. For all this she wants $2,000, believing that her reputation has been injured to that extent. In the other suit she asks $98.50 for services as housekeeper, claiming that in all the time she worked for Daniel's sick wife he failed to pay her a cent.

THEODORE HATCH, a Salem man who has been out of employment and brooded over it, became violently insane a few days ago, and was brought here and placed in jail, pending a hearing in probate court.

A COMMITTEE WAS APPOINTED
John N. Taylor and M. E. Golding Will Investigate Prices and Styles—Several Offers Already in the Hands of the Board—Will be a Beauty.

The board of education has taken action in the matter of purchasing a clock for the new school building, a committee having been appointed to look after that important adjunct to the structure.

At the last meeting of the board a few bills were paid, and then it was suggested that the clock be considered. This met with the sanction of the board, all the members being present, but there seemed nothing to do beyond placing it in the hands of a committee and Colonel Taylor and M. E. Golding were named. They will first ascertain what kind of a clock is best adapted to the need of East Liverpool, and will then look over the applications for the contract. The board have already received a number of propositions from concerns manufacturing clocks of this kind, but have taken no other action than to estimate the cost of adding a clock to the building. The report of the committee will be awaited with interest at the next meeting.

When the News Review suggested last summer that the board order a clock for the tower Architect Owsley endorsed the idea, and said that it would add to the appearance of the building. Then the directors took up the matter and decided that it would be a good thing. The people without objection endorsed the plan, and the result will be what the city has needed for many years.

SOME OF THE AFFLICTED.
Another child of Mr. and Mrs. Baur, College street, is ill with tonsillitis.

The 11-month-old child of John Densmore, 184 Third street, is ill with stomach trouble.

Mrs. Bright, of 377 Fourth street, is seriously ill and her recovery is not expected.

Mrs. Shingeli, a lady aged 69 years, is seriously ill at the home of Mrs. Hoffman, near the china works, with heart trouble. The lady's husband is in Germany.

Mrs. Underwood is ill at her home in the Corns & Underwood building, West End, with fever.

DOCTOR LEE'S LECTURE.
The lecture which Doctor Lee will deliver in the First Presbyterian church on the evening of April 4, is entitled a "Modern Athens, or Quaint Scenes in Edinburgh." The lecture will be illustrated with a number of stereopticon views which were used in connection with the lecture in Minneapolis after his return from Europe. The fame of the lecture reached this city, and the Endeavor society prevailed on Doctor Lee to deliver it.

SHE WILL WAIT.
It is stated on good authority that Caroline Smith, who now has a spring suit against the city for a little matter of ten thousand, denies the statement that she will seek a divorce from her husband Dallas. She says Dallas has been a good husband and she will wait patiently during his four years imprisonment in the pen. The chances are that she will wait even longer for that dip out of the city cash.

TEMPORARY OFFICERS.
The new officers for the Patriotic Sons of America will be elected at a meeting tomorrow evening in Grand Army hall. At the last session Will Carnahan was chosen secretary pro tem and Chris Wetzel treasurer for the time being. State Treasurer Hunter, of Steubenville, is expected at the meeting.

CELEBRATED HIS BIRTHDAY.
Laughlin Cook entertained about 15 of his little friends at his home on Washington street last night in honor of his twelfth birthday. Games were enjoyed by the youngsters, as was an appetizing luncheon, and all the youthful guests went home happy.

RELEASED FROM JAIL.
Special to the News Review.
LISBON, March 27.—Wallace Neiswonger, one of the young men who is accused of complicity with the West township gang, was released from jail yesterday afternoon, his bond of $500 being signed by responsible parties.

Mrs. Elizabeth Batey returned yesterday to Negley after a visit with relatives in this city.

The few people who were standing in a drugstore on Sixth street the other night were somewhat surprised to see a young urchin who ordinarily could not sport a nickel come in, make a purchase and throw down a dollar. The question was asked where he got the money, and the boy replied "Oh, pop sold his cork leg." This sent his hearers into convulsions of laughter, but they found that the boy's statements were true, and the erstwhile penniless family had, as he said, "Money to burn." It is also true that some of the good citizens of East Liverpool pitied the man when he lost his limb, and the money they subscribed purchased that very cork leg.

This One Did Not Pay.

Special to News Review.
CHATANOOGA, March 27.—Robbers boarded the Cincinnati Southern express near Somerset, Ky. this morning, and attempted to break into the express car. The trainmen charged the gang and killed one man and captured two. The remainder escaped.

Paid the Fine.

George Simms, the youth who figured prominently in the stealing of a revolver Monday was not taken to the Lisbon jail to serve the sentence imposed by Squire Rose. The fine was $10 and costs or 20 days behind the bars. The money was paid.

WE GET THE BIG CLOCK

The School Board Are Already Arranging.

A COMMITTEE WAS APPOINTED

John N. Taylor and M. E. Golding Will Investigate Prices and Styles—Several Offers Already in the Hands of the Board—Will be a Beauty.

The board of education has taken action in the matter of purchasing a clock for the new school building, a committee having been appointed to look after that important adjunct to the structure.

At the last meeting of the board a few bills were paid, and then it was suggested that the clock be considered. This met with the sanction of the board, all the members being present, but there seemed nothing to do beyond placing it in the hands of a committee and Colonel Taylor and M. E. Golding were named. They will first ascertain what kind of a clock is best adapted to the need of East Liverpool, and will then look over the applications for the contract. The board have already received a number of propositions from concerns manufacturing clocks of this kind, but have taken no other action than to estimate the cost of adding a clock to the building. The report of the committee will be awaited with interest at the next meeting.

When the News Review suggested last summer that the board order a clock for the tower Architect Owsley endorsed the idea, and said that it would add to the appearance of the building. Then the directors took up the matter and decided that it would be a good thing. The people without objection endorsed the plan, and the result will be what the city has needed for many years.

Some of the Afflicted.

Another child of Mr. and Mrs. Baur, College street, is ill with tonsillitis.

The 11-month-old child of John Densmore, 184 Third street, is ill with stomach trouble.

Mrs. Bright, of 377 Fourth street, is seriously ill and her recovery is not expected.

Mrs. Shingell, a lady aged 69 years, is seriously ill at the home of Mrs. Hoffman, near the china works, with heart trouble. The lady's husband is in Germany.

Mrs. Underwood is ill at her home in the Corns & Underwood building, West End, with fever.

Doctor Lee's Lecture.

The lecture which Doctor Lee will deliver in the First Presbyterian church on the evening of April 4, is entitled a "Modern Athens, or Quaint Scenes in Edinburgh." The lecture will be illustrated with a number of stereopticon views which were used in connection with the lecture in Minneapolis after his return from Europe. The fame of the lecture reached this city, and the Endeavor society prevailed on Doctor Lee to deliver it.

She Will Wait.

It is stated on good authority that Caroline Smith, who now has a spring suit against the city for a little matter of ten thousand, denies the statement that she will seek a divorce from her husband Dallas. She says Dallas has been a good husband and she will wait patiently during his four years imprisonment in the pen. The chances are that she will wait even longer for that dip out of the city cash.

Temporary Officers.

The new officers for the Patriotic Sons of America will be elected at a meeting tomorrow evening in Grand Army hall. At the last session Will Carnahan was chosen secretary pro tem and Chris Wetzel treasurer for the time being. State Treasurer Hunter, of Steubenville, is expected at the meeting.

Celebrated His Birthday.

Laughlin Cook entertained about 15 of his little friends at his home on Washington street last night in honor of his twelfth birthday. Games were enjoyed by the youngsters, as was an appetizing luncheon, and all the youthful guests went home happy.

Released From Jail.

Lisbon, March 27.—Wallace Nelson, one of the young men who is accused of complicity with the West township gang, was released from jail yesterday afternoon, his bond of $500 being signed by responsible parties.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Batey returned yesterday to Negley after a visit with relatives in this city.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, MAR. 27.

For President,
 WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
 Of Ohio.

A COUNTRY correspondent confidentially informs the Wellsville Union that spring will be late this year.

DEMOCRATS are not announcing themselves as candidates for state offices this year. Even the most self-sacrificing hesitate and refuse to appear.

J. N. ROSE and George Morley will be the justices of the peace elected next Monday, because they are the best men after the offices in East Liverpool.

THERE is hope for South Carolina and Mississippi when we learn that a protection newspaper is soon to appear in New Orleans. The sugar men seem to realize the importance of Republican doctrine.

MONEY will be scarce as long as it is not distributed as wages. When mills are closed and factories are shut down, workmen receive no compensation because they have done no labor, and the people who depend upon them for patronage are also affected. When a factory is in operation the employer divides his income; when it is closed there is no income to divide.

The Toledo Blade makes no mistake when it says: "We do not believe Mayor Caldwell or any other Ohio Republican has a thought of being a candidate for United States senator in opposition to J. B. Foraker. The Republican party of this state has made up its mind that Mr. Foraker must succeed Mr. Brice and no other deal goes." Foraker is the only logical candidate and Foraker is therefore the only man to win.

GOVERNOR MCKINLEY AND SILVER.

If Governor McKinley gave utterance to the words credited to him by a Georgia interviewer, he has erected his platform, nailed down the planks, and is now waiting for the Republican party to give him the presidential nomination, or to quietly turn him down as it sees fit. The major has so often championed the cause of protection that his position on that will not be doubted, and the only element he has lacked to make him an ideal candidate was his opinion on silver. He has given it, and according to a time-honored custom, it is founded on Republican principle. The party in the past has always maintained the parity of gold and silver, and has never advocated any theory that would not give an honest dollar. There is an element in the party that would not be content with any but a free silver plank in the national platform, yet the presence of this disturber need not be taken as proof that the next convention will conform to its ideas. On the other hand, there is every reason to believe that Republicanism of the presidential year will be the Republicanism of the past—a dollar that is always worth a dollar, and protection to home industry. These are the two great principles of the party, and upon them hang the laws of the past and of the future. They embody economic ideas that have been all the nation could ask, and contain the elements which produce prosperity. If Governor Mc-Kinley, in open defiance of the free silver people, has stated his opinion as quoted by the southern papers, he may have builded better than he knew, for the action will bring to his standard all just and patriotic men who would see America a land flowing with milk and honey.

RIGHT LABELS ON LIQUOR.

The New South Carolina Governor Violating the Dispensary Law.

CINCINNATI, March 27.—In proof of the assertion that has been made that the administration of the state dispensary law of South Carolina, since the advent of the new governor and commissioner, has been modified, one of the leading wholesale dealers of this city states that Commissioner Mixs has placed an order with him for a large quantity of high-grade liquors to be bottled, and to bear the original label.
 Hereafter the method has been to label all liquors to one brand, that of the state of South Carolina. This is the first time that special labels have been allowed, and while it is apparently in conflict with the law of the state, it shows that the new administration is disposed to soften the rigors of the law and at the same time increase the revenue of the state dispensary.

Burned by Gasoline.

LINWOOD, O., March 27.—While Mrs.
 M. Davis was lighting her gasoline stove she allowed the cup to get too full and drip into the pan underneath, which caught fire and blazed up, and in attempting to extinguish the small blaze she upset the stove, scattering gasoline all over the room, which immediately became one mass of flames. Her hair was singed off and her face blistered;
 her left hand was burned to a crisp.
 The entire inside of the house, which was owned by John Barrone, was burned out. Loss about $500; insured in the Phoenix.

Evidently Murder and Arson.

CEDARVILLE, O., March 27.—The suburban residence of William H. Walker has been destroyed by a fire which originated in a detached room where slept a relative, Sanford Wilson, who was burned beyond recognition. He was single and aged about 60 years. The body was found lying face downward on the floor. He was an old soldier and had drawn a large pension in gold.
 This is missing. His skull was found to be crushed and foul play is suspected.
 An investigation will be made.

Fined For a Peculiar Offense.

CINCINNATI, March 27.—The United States government has enforced through the United States court the penalty for opening another's letters in a peculiar case. John Stuttmeyer, an employee of the paper mill which buys the waste paper of the Cincinnati postoffice, found a few letters among the waste directed to parties in Chillicothe, O. Stuttmeyer found a check for $50 in one of them and then wrote to the Chillicothe postmaster requesting a reward for returning the letters. He made a plea of guilty and was fined $25.

Interstate Baseball Association.

MANFIELD, O., March 27.—At a meeting of the Interstate Baseball association, in this city, Howard M. Ziegler of Columbus was elected president.
 Following is the circuit: Mansfield, Springfield, Dayton, Uhrichsville, Den-ington, Columbus, Wheeling, Steubenville, Canton and Akron. A constitution and bylaws were adopted and a schedule was prepared. The season begins May 1, with 112 games to be played.

Robbed For a Third Time.

AMELIA, O., March 27.—For the third time within a year the station of the Cincinnati, Georgetown and Portsmouth, railway has been broken into.
 In the station company the safe was blown across the room, completely gut-ting it and bursting off the doors. An adjoining blacksmith shop was damaged by the explosion. Nothing valuable was secured.

Cured by Anti-Toxine.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., March 27.—Another successful anti-toxine test has been made here. Frank McDonald, a colored hostler, was seized with diphtheria, and surely would have died but for two injections of the anti-toxine. His temperature was 106 and began falling within ten hours. Dr. Stutz pronounces it the most remarkable cure in his experience.

A Big Revival Meeting.

BLANCHETTER, O., March 27.—The religious revival begun here by Rev. Mc-Nary at the M. E. church eight weeks ago has assumed great proportions. A special train was run from Hillsboro and brought a big crowd to the services.
 A number of converts were made, swelling the total to 200.

An Ohio Man Pardoned.

WASHINGTON, March 27.—The president has pardoned W. G. Hera, sentenced in southern Ohio to three years' imprisonment at hard labor for making counterfeit plans. His term expired last July, and the pardon is granted to restore citizenship.

The Elks' Case.

CLEVELAND, March 27.—In the Elks' case Hon. M. A. Foran of this city made the opening argument for the plaintiff and was followed by R. B.
 Murray and A. J. Wolf of Youngstown for the defense. The case will probably go to the jury today.

Dime and Lavigne Matched.

CLEVELAND, March 27.—Arrangements have been completed for a 15-round match between Dime and Lavigne, the lightweight boxers. The contest will take place next Friday evening at the club house of the Cleveland Athletic association.

Ashley Not a Candidate.

TOLEDO, March 27.—James M. Ashley, Jr., the Ann Arbor railway magnate, whom the recent press dispatches announced as a candidate to succeed Senator Calvin S. Brice, pronounces the report a canard.

Indicted For Mail Robbery.

 his family do not express any grave fears as to his condition.

A FAMOUS INSTITUTION.

The Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, N. Y.

What can be accomplished by judicious enterprise, when backed up by ability and professional skill, is shown by the magnificent buildings of
 the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo. This model sanitarium furnishes one of the sights of Buffalo, but not alone for its architectural beauty, but on account of the worldwide fame of Dr. Ray V. Pierce, who established the institution many years ago, and is today its managing director and president. A beautiful five-story building situated on Main street, the principal business street of Buffalo, the Invalids' Hotel can well be said to surpass any institution of its kind in the country.

Sixteen physicians form the medical staff of this institution, who devote their time to the patients in the building, and to correspondence by letter with patients who consult them from all over the United States. Each physician or surgeon is chosen for his skill and proficiency in curing one class of chronic disease. Thus the patient has for his physician an experience specialist who is thoroughly familiar with the case. A material aid to the medical treatment are the machines for giving "mechanical movement," or massage, electrical apparatus, Turkish baths, etc., with which the hotel is thoroughly equipped. Large and airy rooms, parlors, reading rooms, elevator, and many other conveniences make this

A PLEASANT REMEDIAL HOME,

and far different from the private hospitals as commonly known. The World's Dispensary Medical association, of which Dr. Pierce is president, is the owner of the Invalids' Hotel and the large laboratory, called the World's Dispensary, as well. Standing on the same lot, which runs through to the next street back, is the huge laboratory, six stories in height, which furnishes ample room for manufacturing Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, Dr. Pierce's Extract of Smart-Weed, or Water Pepper. These are proprietary remedies which have been sold for over a quarter of a century all over the United States, from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Carloads of these medicines are shipped every day from Buffalo to points east, west and south.

An idea of the extensive business carried on by the association can be gained by what is said of it by the postoffice authorities at Washington, D. C., who report that this one firm spends annually for stamps more than all the banks and newspapers of Buffalo combined, or over $100, 000. The mail matter amounts to from 30,000 to 40,000 pieces daily. The first story of the World's Dispensary building is occupied by the shipping department; the second floor is devoted to the large newspaper advertising department and the mailing;
 third floor, printing room and bindery;
 fourth floor, drug mills and paper warerooms; fifth floor, bottling, wrapping and packing department; on the sixth floor is one of

When a factory is in operation the employer divides his income; when it is closed there is no income to divide.

THE Toledo Blade makes no mistake when it says: "We do not believe Mayor Caldwell or any other Ohio Republican has a thought of being a candidate for United States senator in opposition to J. B. Foraker. The Republican party of this state has made up its mind that Mr. Foraker must succeed Mr. Brice and no other deal goes." Foraker is the only logical candidate and Foraker is therefore the only man to win.

GOVERNOR MCKINLEY AND SILVER. If Governor McKinley gave utterance to the words credited to him by a Georgia interviewer, he has erected his platform, nailed down the planks, and is now waiting for the Republican party to give him the presidential nomination, or to quietly turn him down as it sees fit. The major has so often championed the cause of protection that his position on that will not be doubted, and the only element he has lacked to make him an ideal candidate was his opinion on silver. He has given it, and according to a time-honored custom, it is founded on Republican principle. The party in the past has always maintained the parity of gold and silver, and has never advocated any theory that would not give an honest dollar. There is an element in the party that would not be content with any but a free silver plank in the national platform, yet the presence of this disturber need not be taken as proof that the next convention will conform to its ideas. On the other hand, there is every reason to believe that Republicanism of the presidential year will be the Republicanism of the past—a dollar that is always worth a dollar, and protection to home industry. These are the two great principles of the party, and upon them hang the laws of the past and of the future. They embody economic ideas that have been all the nation could ask, and contain the elements which produce prosperity. If Governor McKinley, in open defiance of the free silver people, has stated his opinion as quoted by the southern papers, he may have builded better than he knew, for the action will bring to his standard all just and patriotic men who would see America a land flowing with milk and honey.

Ripans Tablets: for torpid liver

RIGHT LABELS ON LIQUOR.

The New South Carolina Governor Violating the Dispensary Law.

CINCINNATI, March 27.—In proof of the assertion that has been made that the administration of the state dispensary law of South Carolina, since the advent of the new governor and commissioner, has been modified, one of the leading wholesale dealers of this city states that Commissioner Mixs has placed an order with him for a large quantity of high-grade liquors to be bottled and to bear the original label.

Heretofore the method has been to label all liquors to one brand, that of the state of South Carolina. This is the first time that special labels have been allowed, and while it is apparently in conflict with the law of the state, it shows that the new administration is disposed to soften the rigors of the law and at the same time increase the revenue of the state dispensary.

Burned by Gasoline.

LINCOLN, O., March 27.—While Mrs. M. Davis was lighting her gasoline stove she allowed the cup to get too full and drip into the pan underneath, which caught fire and blazed up, and in attempting to extinguish the small blaze she upset the stove, scattering gasoline all over the room, which immediately became one mass of flames. Her hair was singed off and her face blistered; her left hand was burned to a crisp. The entire inside of the house, which was owned by John Barrone, was burned out. Loss about $500, insured in the Phoenix.

Evidently Murder and Arson.

CEDARVILLE, O., March 27.—The suburban residence of William H. Walker has been destroyed by a fire which originated in a detached room where slept a relative, Sanford Wilson, who was burned beyond recognition. He was single and aged about 60 years. The body was found lying face downward on the floor. He was an old soldier and had drawn a large pension in gold. This is missing. His skull was found to be crushed and foul play is suspected. An investigation will be made.

Fined for a Peculiar Offense.

CINCINNATI, March 27.—The United States government has enforced through the United States court the penalty for opening another's letters in a peculiar case. John Stuttmeyer, an employee of the paper mill which buys the waste paper of the Cincinnati postoffice, found a few letters among the waste directed to parties in Chillicothe. O. Stuttmeyer found a check for $50 in one of them and then wrote to the Chillicothe postmaster requiring a reward for returning the letters. He made a plea of guilty and was fined $25.

An adjoining blacksmith shop was damaged by the explosion. Nothing valuable was secured.

Cured by Anti-Toxine.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., March 27.—Another successful anti-toxine test has been made here. Frank McDonald, a colored hostler, was seized with diphtheria, and surely would have died but for two injections of the anti-toxine. His temperature was 106 and began falling within ten hours. Dr. Strutz pronounces it the most remarkable cure in his experience.

A Big Revival Meeting.

BLANCHESTER, O., March 27.—The religious revival begun here by Rev. McNary at the M. E. church, eight weeks ago has assumed great proportions. A special train was run from Hillsboro and brought a big crowd to the services. A number of converts were made, swelling the total to 200.

A FAMOUS INSTITUTION.

The Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, N. Y.

What can be accomplished by judicious enterprise, when backed up by ability and professional skill, is shown by the magnificent buildings of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo. This model sanitarium furnishes one of the sights of Buffalo, not alone for its architectural beauty, but on account of the world-wide fame of Dr. Ray V. Pierce, who established the institution many years ago, and is today its managing director and president. A beautiful five-story building situated on Main street, the principal business street of Buffalo, the Invalids' Hotel can well be said to surpass any institution of its kind in the country.

Sixteen physicians form the medical staff of this institution, who devote their time to the patients in the building, and to correspondence by letter with patients who consult them from all over the United States. Each physician or surgeon is chosen for his skill and proficiency in curing one class of chronic disease. Thus the patient has for his physician an experienced specialist who is thoroughly familiar with the case. A material aid to the medical treatment are the machines for giving "mechanical movement," or massage, electrical apparatus, Turkish baths, etc., with which the hotel is thoroughly equipped. Large and airy rooms, parlors, reading rooms, elevator, and many other conveniences make this

A PLEASANT REMEDIAL HOME, and far different from the private hospitals as commonly known. The World's Dispensary Medical association, of which Dr. Pierce is president, is the owner of the Invalids' Hotel and the large laboratory, called the World's Dispensary, as well. Standing on the same lot, which runs through to the next street back, is the huge laboratory, six stories in height, which furnishes ample room for manufacturing Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, Dr. Pierce's Extract of Smart-Weed, or Water Pepper. These are proprietary remedies which have been sold for over a quarter of a century all over the United States, from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Carloads of these medicines are shipped every day from Buffalo to points east, west and south.

An idea of the extensive business carried on by the association is gained by what is said of it by the postoffice authorities at Washington, D. C., who report that this one firm spends annually for stamps more than all the banks and newspapers of Buffalo combined, or over $100,000. The mail matter amounts to from 30,000 to 40,000 pieces daily. The first story of the World's Dispensary building is occupied by the shipping department; the second floor is devoted to the large newspaper advertising department and the mailing; third floor, printing room and bindery; fourth floor, drug mills and paper warehouses; fifth floor, bottling, wrapping and packing department; on the sixth floor is one of

THE BEST PLANNED LABORATORIES in the country, in charge of a thoroughly scientific chemist, formerly of the Harvard medical school laboratory. In fact, the equipment of the machinery and the system with which these large institutions are equipped, and the marvelous manner in which everything works along as though by clockwork, would well repay a visit to Buffalo—Boston Herald.

BENDHEIM'S,

DIAMOND.

The river road, the street ran company, and the question of what a new right of way must be provided seems to have been lost in the shuffle at city hall. One councilman marked last night that as it was in the hands of a special committee and the solicitor was looking after that it would probably appear in time, while another suggested that it would be a precious legacy to leave the next council, and would be a thing for use in breaking in the members.

branched into the crowds that obstruct the sidewalks, but when he found that council was not interested in his eloquence he sat down. President Berg by this time had reached the conclusion that he should set himself right before council, and read section 316, where the sidewalk matter is made a misdemeanor. It was under this section he said that he had given Hoffman his permit. In support of his position he wanted to know why a man living in the second or third story of a building did not have the right to advertise his business. Burton expressed his opinion, but it did not coincide with the view of the president. At this point Owen wanted to withdraw the resolution, but Berg objected to this proceeding, and expressed a desire to see the case taken to a court where it could be settled and then dropped.

As this ended the matter the polling places for the election on Monday were read, and Williams arose with May street in his countenance. He pointed out that the city had promised to pave the gutter, and it had never been done. In a little while the curb would be washed away if this was not done, and Marshall said the only reason it had not been paved long ago was because the proper authorities could not be found. Berg thought the improvement should be made, but suggested that it be laid over until the next council came in. Marshall could not see where this would be justice to the people, and his motion to contract for the paving of the gutter from Pleasant street to the Anderson allotment was passed.

The ghost of the charges against the board of health appeared when Doctor Marshall arose and moved that the matter be taken up on Friday evening at 8 o'clock, and the clerk be instructed to notify the board. He wanted the charges proved or disproved. Kent thought this had been lost sight of, and said he was sorry that it had again appeared. He sincerely hoped that council would vote it down, and gave notice that he would oppose the movement. Marshall allowed him this as his right, but he had brought those charges and proposed to see them through. As yet council had no satisfaction from the prosecution, but the discussion had been a good thing for the city, and also for the board of health. Then the president left the chair, and after Williams had been comfortably seated Berg said there should be no more agitations. He was not in favor of dropping the charges, but he believed council had done enough. He was sorry that his motion at the last meeting had not carried as they could then have the record to show they had censured the board of health. Marshall said he did not like to talk again, but he wanted to state that he believed there were additional facts to appear. The charges had not been proved, although the action of the board was convincing enough. He touched upon the change of sentiment in council since the question was first raised. Berg argued that he knew of no firmer evidence that the board had done wrong than the verdict of the 12 men who had so decided, but Marshall pointed out that this evidence had nothing to do with council. He believed they had been convicted before the public. The motion was put after a little more conversation and Williams, Swindells, Marshall and Owen supported it while the others voted no. It was declared lost, and the board of health prosecution died. A moment after Owen moved an adjournment Burton wanted to report favorably on a street sweeper, but it was too late.

NO PROFIT IN SUNDAY SELLING

The Mayor Decided That She Should Leave $50 and the Costs and Liquidate the Old Indebtedness Today—A Note For the City.

If Mayor Gilbert set the pace for saloonists who sell on Sunday when he fined Arthur Stanway the practice is destined to become unpopular in this city.

Mrs. Betsy Stanway went to the mayor's office last evening, and decided that her husband wanted to plead guilty to the charge. Mayor Gilbert looked unusually grave as he declared the penalty was $50 and costs, and Mrs. Stanway did not seem happy. Her lord and master was confined to his room by an illness, and his wife did not have the money, but the mayor decided to take a note, and then remembered that there was an old fine against Arthur that must be liquidated. Mrs. Stanway promised to be around today, and pay the bill, and the mayor decided to wait.

IN THE SWIM.

Among fashionable folks you will always find our Neckwear plays a prominent part. Not that it is to be worn in the water, as our artist seems to indicate, but it is as easy for the neck as a collar or scarf formed of that limpid liquid if such a thing were possible. The colors don't fade easily. As to style, we have the latest No relics from Noah's ark, but down-to-date eye charmers. The harmonious blending of the color in our scarfs is like unto a rainbow's dazzling display. You see them. You admire; you desire. They are yours for a trifle. Gentlemen, our furnishings are the talk of the town. Their magnetism of superlative excellence attracts all people. Our stock of Hats and Caps are worth while seeing. Come and see.

branched into the crowds that obstruct the sidewalks, but when he found that council was not interested in his eloquence he sat down. President Berg by this time had reached the conclusion that he should set himself right before council, and read section 316, where the sidewalk matter is made a misdemeanor. It was under this section he said that he had given Hoffman his permit. In support of his position he wanted to know why a man living in the second or third story of a building did not have the right to advertise his business. Burton expressed his opinion, but it did not coincide with the view of the president. At this point Owen wanted to withdraw the resolution, but Berg objected to this proceeding, and expressed a desire to see the case taken to a court where it could be settled and then dropped.

As this ended the matter the polling places for the election on Monday were read, and Williams arose with May street in his countenance. He pointed out that the city had promised to pave the gutter, and it had never been done. In a little while the curb would be washed away if this was not done, and Marshall said the only reason it had not been paved long ago was because the proper authorities could not be found. Berg thought the improvement should be made, but suggested that it be laid over until the next council came in. Marshall could not see where this would be justice to the people, and his motion to contract for the paving of the gutter from Pleasant street to the Anderson allotment was passed.

The ghost of the charges against the board of health appeared when Doctor Marshall arose and moved that the matter be taken up on Friday evening at 8 o'clock, and the clerk be instructed to notify the board. He wanted the charges proved or disproved. Kent thought this had been lost sight of, and said he was sorry that it had again appeared. He sincerely hoped that council would vote it down, and gave notice that he would oppose the movement. Marshall allowed him this as his right, but he had brought those charges and proposed to see them through. As yet council had no satisfaction from the prosecution, but the discussion had been a good thing for the city, and also for the board of health. Then the president left the chair, and after Williams had been comfortably seated Berg said there should be no more agitations. He was not in favor of dropping the charges, but he believed council had done enough. He was sorry that his motion at the last meeting had not carried as they could then have the record to show they had censured the board of health. Marshall said he did not like to talk again, but he wanted to state that he believed there were additional facts to appear. The charges had not been proved, although the action of the board was convincing enough. He touched upon the change of sentiment in council since the question was first raised. Berg argued that he knew of no firmer evidence that the board had done wrong than the verdict of the 12 men who had so decided, but Marshall pointed out that this evidence had nothing to do with council. He believed they had been convicted before the public. The motion was put after a little more conversation and Williams, Swindells, Marshall and Owen supported it while the others voted no. It was declared lost, and the board of health prosecution died. A moment after Owen moved an adjournment Burton wanted to report favorably on a street sweeper, but it was too late.

Mrs. Arthur Stanway Visits Mayor Gilbert.

NO PROFIT IN SUNDAY SELLING

The Mayor Decided That She Should Leave $50 and the Costs and Liquidate the Old Indebtedness Today—A Note For the City.

If Mayor Gilbert set the pace for saloonists who sell on Sunday when he fined Arthur Stanway the practice is destined to become unpopular in this city.

Mrs. Betsy Stanway went to the mayor's office last evening, and decided that her husband wanted to plead guilty to the charge. Mayor Gilbert looked unusually grave as he declared the penalty was $50 and costs, and Mrs. Stanway did not seem happy. Her lord and master was confined to his room by an illness, and his wife did not have the money, but the mayor decided to take a note, and then remembered that there was an old fine against Arthur that must be liquidated. Mrs. Stanway promised to be around today, and pay the bill, and the mayor decided to wait.
